VARIETIES OF ANARCHISM: ANARCHIST PROJECTS AND THE STRUGGLES THAT DEFINE THEM

FILM PRE-PREVIEW AND DISCUSSION

organised by the “International Dissidence” Research group and the Cluster of Excellence: Normative Orders

7 August 2014, 6:15 pm

Building: Normative Orders, Room: EG.01
(Corner of Lübecker Str. & Hansaallee)

WITH:

Marcel Seehuber (Filmmaker)

Prof. Lucien van der Walt (Rhodes University, South Africa)

For almost 150 years anarchism has inspired contrarians. Many write it off as destructive, others consider it an uncompromising conception of freedom. But there are differences of interpretation even among its adherents. Starting with a film pre-screening and lecture, we will inquire into the differences and convergences among historical and modern anarchic projects in the subsequent discussion. The evening will close with a reception.
