A Kantian International Order – Principles and Institutions

Conference jointly organized by the Centre for Advanced Studies “Justitia Amplificata”, the Cluster of Excellence “Normative Orders”, and the Leibniz Research Group on Transnational Justice

5th-6th July 2018
Goethe University, Campus Westend
Normative Orders, Room 5.01

Schedule

Thursday, 5th July 2018

13.30-14.00  Welcome and Introduction

  Discussant: Sofie Møller (sofie.moeller@normativeorders.net)

15.30-16.00  Break

16.30-18.00  Lea Ypi (LSE): “Resistance: A Permissive Account”

  Discussant: JP Messina (jp.messina@icloud.com)

From 18.00  Drinks and Dinner at the 5th Floor Lounge, Cluster Building
Friday, 6th July 2018

10.00-11.30  Peter Niesen (Hamburg): “Cosmopolitan Mobility Rights: from Grotius to Kant”

Discussant: Dorothea Gädeke (dorothea.gaedeke@normativeorders.net)

---

11.30-12.00  Break

---

12.00-13.30  Inés Valdez (Ohio State / Princeton): “What Does it Mean to Read Hospitality from Below? Kant, Du Bois, and a Transnational Cosmopolitanism”

Discussant: Julian Culp (culp@em.uni-frankfurt.de)

---

13.30-14.30  Lunch

---

14.30-16.00  Jakob Huber (Frankfurt): “Shifting Borders and Cosmopolitan Encounters: Kant’s Case for Safe Passage”

Discussant: Tamara Jugov (tamara.jugov@fu-berlin.de)

---

16.00-16.30  Break

---

16.30-18.00  Christopher Meckstroth (Cambridge): “Kant’s Choice for Federation and Hospitality over Universal Monarchy and the Law of Nations”

Discussant: Afsoun Afsahi (afsoun.afsahi@alumni.ubc.ca)